A Killer's Love by Mike Monson

Lancaster Messier makes good money murdering rich women and converting all of their earthly possessions into cash. But when he meets the sexy and alluring Carla, he makes a fundamental occupational mistake--he falls in love. A Killer's Love is an intense novella about the slippery nature of identity, and includes all the extreme sex, violence, and sick humor you've come to expect from Mike Monson. Mike Monson is the author of the novel Tussinland, and the novellas What Happens in Reno, and The Scent of New Death. He is the co-publisher of All Due Respect Books. He lives in Modesto, California, where he is employed as a civil litigation paralegal for a noir law firm where he only works on pathetic cases that are doomed to fail.
